Attendance Matters

We've had a really great start this year with our attendance so let's keep it going. The target for all children is to be in school no less than 95% of the year (which means not missing more than 10 school days). The more our children are in school, the greater the chance they have of reaching their full potential . . . please help us achieve this for all our pupils.

Message from the Head Teacher

It is fantastic to see everyone back in school looking ready to learn and full of excitement. Our children look so smart in their uniforms and there have been lots of changes in the school over the summer to share with you.

School Ethos

Our new school values

We have updated our school values with five values that we feel support our children to be the best they can be. Ask your child what they mean and how we can show them in school.

- Be Proud
- Be Ambitious
- Be Resilient
- Be Respectful
- Be Kind

""Education is the passport to the future, and attendance is the stamp that gets you there.""

This Week in Pictures

Year 1 & 2 have done their first science experiment investigating plants

EYFS have had great fun exploring and learning with all the new equipment.

Year 3 & 4 used clues and images to try and predict the new text they are studying.

S4YC are now fully open with both their nursery (and baby room) and the before / after school clubs.

Early Years

Early Years has a makeover

Over the summer holidays the team have been working hard and made lots of changes to our EYFS areas. This has included new walls and doors to create a more useable space, a change of focus for some of the areas and lots and lots of amazing new resources. Keep an eye out on Class Dojo for more photos and updates.
